GACC senior Doernemann chooses to be Husker walk-on

Casey Doernemann, a senior at Guardian Angels Central Catholic, announced last week that he will be a walk-on for the Nebraska football program.

Doernemann recently played in the River Battle Bowl all-star game, and was a Class D1 All-State selection as a junior. He will start his career out as an offensive lineman for the Huskers.

Doernemann had other collegiate options, including a scholarship offer to play at Chadron State.

“Playing at Nebraska means so much to me because it has been a dream of mine ever since I have been a little kid,” Doernemann said.

“I love everything about Nebraska football, the coaches, the fans, the tradition, the gameday atmosphere, and direction the program is going. Finally my highschool football coach, Dave Ridder, was at Nebraska football player himself. That’s why I decided to be a Cornhusker.”

Casey is the son of Jim and Lynda Doernemann.

GACC one-act performance

Makenna Rolf and Noah Hass perform a scene in their 2019 one-act production called "Wait 'Til the Sun Shines, Nellie." Guardian Angels Central Catholic placed 3rd overall in the C1-3 District performance held at Wisner-Pilger High School. GACC also held a public performance as well as competing in the Mid-State Conference contest. Emma Stokely ('11) was the director of GACC's one-act production.

Winter sports underway for Bluejays

The 2019-20 winter sports season is underway for Guardian Angels Central Catholic. Sports played during the winter are basketball and wrestling. Among Bluejay athletes competing this winter are three seniors: Damon Crawford, Marissa Hunke and Adam Reeson. They were featured on the front cover of the West Point News' 2019 winter sports tab.

Wishing everyone a Merry Christmas

Merry Christmas to everyone. I want to take this opportunity to thank everyone for their continued support of GACC.

Isn't it wonderful that this time of year our students, from preschool to seniors, learn about the true reason for Christmas, and not the crazy consumer reasons that are advertised everywhere.

We hope that in the hustle and bustle of the holiday season you never forget the real reason for the season.

I hope the holiday season is filled with Christ's love for each of you and your families. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Merry Christmas to all from everyone at Guardian Angels Central Catholic.
