A Note from our Principal

We welcomed Mr. John Naatz to Guardian Angels Central Catholic as our new Interim President this past week. Mr. Naatz will be responsible for the institutional advancement of the school, its overall vision, leadership and management, supervision of all personnel, promotion and preservation of the school's Catholic identity, religious mission and ministry of the school, its financial health, and oversees student recruitment and retention. When you see Mr. Naatz, please give him a warm welcome.

Our Guardian Angels Central Catholic Capital Campaign kicked off this past Saturday. We are in very exciting times and this much-anticipated project is directed at enhancing the campus environment for students, teachers, staff, families, visitors, and other benefactors. Our roadmap focuses on reinforcing Guardian Angels Central Catholic's areas of excellence and upgrading essential campus infrastructure. Updates regarding the campaign will be provided on our website.

Finally, a friendly reminder we will hold Parent/Teacher Conferences on Wednesday, February 28th. We look forward to visiting with you regarding your child's progress. Please know that students will not have school Wednesday, February 28th – Monday, March 4th. School will resume on March 5th.

Have a blessed week!

Mrs. Peatrowsky

Am I Eligible?

Is my family eligible to receive a scholarship?

- Scholarships are based on financial need, following income guidelines similar to the National School Lunch Program. Please see the CSF website for our most recent income scale: www.csfomaha.org

What grades are eligible to receive a CSF scholarship?

- CSF awards scholarships for children in grades K-8 to any private or parochial school of their family's choosing.

Are siblings of my CSF scholar able to receive a scholarship?

- Yes, once you are qualified every K-8 child in your family is eligible to receive a scholarship.

Can I transfer my scholarship to a different private school?

- Yes, you may apply your CSF scholarship to a different private or parochial school on our list, should you decide to transfer.

How much will my child's scholarship be?

- Current scholarship amounts range from $400-$1,100, and the same amount is awarded to each child in your family. Please note that a CSF scholarship does NOT cover full tuition at a private school.

CSF scholarship requirements

Once awarded a scholarship, families must adhere to CSF's scholarship requirements to continue to receive assistance. For more details, please visit our website: www.csfomaha.org

How to Apply

Choose the private or parochial school that is the best fit for your child(ren)

Go online at www.csfomaha.org
Click on How To Apply
If eligible fill out the application completely

Submit correct and complete application with all required financial documentation

If not selected to receive a scholarship, please apply the following year*

Children's Scholarship Fund of Omaha (CSF) at a glance:

A Parent's Choice

CSF Omaha has no religious affiliation and is destination neutral. Families who receive a scholarship choose the school that best fits their children's needs.

A Family Commitment

Every family who receives a scholarship must contribute $500 to their child's education, and each scholar must achieve a minimum attendance rate of 90%.

A Commitment until Graduation

Once a child receives a scholarship, they will continue to do so until 8th grade graduation.

www.csfomaha.org

*Long-term scholarship commitment is dependent upon continued financial eligibility, adherence to scholarship requirements, and availability of funding.

Giving parents a choice.

Giving children a chance.

We provide partial tuition scholarships for K-8th graders in Northeast Nebraska and the Omaha Metro.
